THE CHURCH GATHERS . . .

“The world and the church are changing more rapidly than we can comprehend...some things are the same: the world and the church desperately need energy, imagination, passion, impatience, intelligence, and love...one of the great biblical themes is that God calls...all of us to walk into the future without knowing exactly where we are headed, to let go of old securities and certainties and trust the God who promises to be with us wherever we go.”

Rev. John Buchanan, retired PC(USA) minister

Gracious God, our light and our salvation, forgive our lack of faithfulness. Heal the brokenness that separates us one from another, from our own best selves, and from you. Rescue us from the fears that hold us hostage; the fear of the unknown, the fear of difference, the fear of change, all of which fuels judgement and prejudice. Turn us from quarrels that hurt and destroy. Grant us new depths of caring and forgiveness, that we might serve you with renewed strength and purpose. In Jesus’ name we pray. Amen.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Unison) from A Declaration of Faith

Christ teaches us to put obedience to God above the interests of self, family, race or nation; to offer God joyously our money, ability and time. It is part of our discipline to observe a day of worship and rest, setting aside our own working to enjoy God’s work, celebrating with sisters and brothers the Lord’s goodness. We need constantly to search out God’s way in Scripture, not expecting detailed directions for every decision, but relying on the Word to tell us who God is, to press God’s present claim on us, and to assure us of God’s grace and comfort. We are charged to pray for ourselves and others with gratitude, boldness, and persistence, confident that God hears and answers our prayers in ways best for us all. Life in God’s presence results in a life lived for others, for if we do not love sisters and brothers whom we see, we cannot love God whom we do not see.

Cosponsoring this event will be the Knoxville Chapter of the American Guild of Organists. The congregation is cordially invited and encouraged to attend. A nursery will be provided.

FELIX MENDELSSOHN composed his oratorio Elijah in 1846 for the Birmingham Festival (England) and it gained immediate popularity. Its text, taken from the Old Testament, depicts various events in the life of the prophet. Mendelssohn was an important figure in the revival of interest in the works of J. S. Bach, having organized the first performance of the Saint Matthew Passion since the composer's death. The oratorios of Handel were also very familiar to Mendelssohn and he prepared a scholarly edition of several of them for publication in London. Elijah is composed in the same vein as these works of Bach and Handel, yet its style exhibits early Romantic lyricism, choral and orchestral color, dynamic shading, and harmonic language.

Jan is one of the Co-Moderators of the 222nd General Assembly of the PC(USA). We will host an informal gathering/potluck supper Saturday evening at 6:00 p.m., and she will preach at both services Sunday. We have invited members from other Presbyterian churches in the area to join us Saturday night, and are hoping to give her a very warm East Tennessee welcome.

Jan is passionate about social justice issues, and writes a blog, A Church for Starving Artists (<https://achurchforstarvingartists.wordpress.com>). On Saturday night, she will spend part of her time speaking about a book she and her fellow Co-Moderator, the Rev. Denise Anderson, are suggesting church members should read, and why they recommend it. The book is entitled Waking Up White, and it is available in paperback and on Kindle through Amazon if you would like to begin reading in advance of her visit.
