The Order of Worship

October 8, 2017

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

THE CHURCH GATHERS . . .

THE LAW OF GOD

Exodus 20:1-17

In preparation for worship, the people may wish to meditate on the law of God.

God spoke all these words, saying, I am the Lord your God.

You shall have no other gods before me.

You shall not make for yourself and idol, whether in the form of anything that is in heaven above or that is on the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

You shall not bow down to them or worship them.

You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the Lord your God.

Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy.

Honor your father and your mother.

You shall not murder.

You shall not commit adultery.

You shall not steal.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

You shall not covet your neighbor's house; you shall not covet your neighbor's spouse, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (Unison)

Central to our Reformed tradition is the affirmation of the majesty, holiness and providence of God who creates, sustains, rules and redeems the world in the freedom of sovereign righteousness and love. We affirm the election of the people of God for service as well as for salvation; covenant life marked by a disciplined concern for order in the church according to the Word of God; a faithful stewardship that shuns ostentation and seeks proper use of the gifts of God's creation; the recognition of the human tendency to idolatry and tyranny, which calls the people of God to work for the transformation of society by seeking justice and living in obedience to the Word of God.

SIR FREDERICK ARTHUR GORE OUSELEY (1825-1889) was an English composer, organist, musicologist, and priest. Following his ordination into the priesthood in 1849 and during his two years of service to the parish of St. Barnabas, Pimlico, he received the degree of Mus.B. at the University of Oxford and four years later his doctorate. He went on to hold the position of Heather Professor of Music at Oxford from 1855 to 1889. The composer of a great number of services and anthems, cantatas, chamber music, organ works, and songs, his instructional treatises include Harmony (1868), Counterpoint (1869), and Musical Form (1875). Italian composer and organist Andrea Gabrieli is the uncle of the somewhat more well-known Giovanni Gabrieli. Most likely a native of Venice, he was possibly a pupil of Adrian Willaert at St. Mark's Cathedral. In 1562 he traveled to Frankfurt am Main and Munich, where he became acquainted with Orlando di Lasso, one of the most important and influential composers of the Renaissance. The ensuing friendship proved fruitful for both, becoming a musical cross-pollination of sorts, resulting in musical styles being spread throughout Europe and brought back to Venice as well. In 1566 Gabrieli was named organist at St. Mark's, one of the most prestigious posts in Italy. He would retain this position for the remainder of his life.

STEWARDSHIP: Noted priest, professor, writer, and theologian Henri Nouwen viewed Christian stewardship as a declaration that we have a vision that is amazing and exciting. In the coming weeks, you'll read and hear about our past commitments to being faithful stewards, about how those commitments are manifested today, and about visions for our church's future in God's world. This body of Christ has demonstrated, time and again, that it is one that fully embraces Christian stewardship and all that stewardship means - and we count as a blessing the culture that is Westminster church.

We will consider the question, 'What Is Good News To the Poor?' Source material for the lesson is from Joerg Rieger, PhD., Distinguished Professor of Theology, Cal Turner Chancellor's Chair of Wesleyan Studies, Vanderbilt Divinity School. Dr. Rieger holds a PhD from Duke University and held an endowed chair at SMU Perkin's School of Theology for 18 years. Breakfast will be provided and all men are welcome.

WEDNESDAYS WITH WESTMINSTER

DIETRICH BONHOEFFER: THE CONFESSING CHURCH AND NAZI GERMANY:

Dietrich Bonhoeffer (1906-1945) was a German Lutheran Pastor, Theologian, Activist and one of the founding members of the Confessing Church movement, a movement of Christian leaders who opposed Adolph Hitler. Bonhoeffer's life and work continue to inspire people across the broad spectrum of religious thinking. This class will look at the political and theological background of Nazi Germany and then focus specifically on Bonhoeffer and the way his thinking about God and faith was shaped by the world around him. I will be using two books primarily and class participants are encouraged to get either or both. For a close look at Bonhoeffer himself, we will use Dietrich Bonhoeffer: Letters & Papers from Prison. Not an easy book to read, it does allow us to look at both Bonhoeffer the person as well as the theologian. If you prefer a more readable book, we will also be drawing from A Spoke in the Wheel: The Life of Dietrich Bonhoeffer by Renate Wind, a brief but very informative biography. For those who want to dig a little deeper, so to speak, I would suggest looking at the following works by Bonhoeffer:

The Cost of Discipleship - Will dedicate a class to this book and would love for some folks to engage this work.

Ethics

Meditations on the Cross - A collection of daily devotions

Psalms: The Prayer Book of the Bible

We will be placing an order for Letters and Papers from Prison and A Spoke in the Wheel for $15 per book. Please let Melissa Everett (melissa_wpc@comcast.net) know as soon as possible if you would like to order one of the books. Both are also available for Kindle if you would prefer to order on your own.

BUCKET LIST CLASS: Our second class offering for Wednesday evenings will be this semester's "Bucket List" hands-on activity. We are hoping to provide a unique opportunity for everyone to try doing something adventurous. This semester's class will be -- STAINED GLASS!! From October 18 to November 5, Barbara Adamcik will teach you the beautiful craft of making stained glass art. By the end of the 5 one hour sessions, you will have an 8-12 inch square piece of art and at least one Christmas ornament. Barbara will have pre-made designs, or invent and assemble your own design. This activity is most appropriate for participants 10 years thru adult. We are suggesting participants pay a $10 materials fee for this 5-week class. (It is not required.)
