*CALL TO CONFESSION

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

Gracious God, the season of Advent reminds us that there is within us a hunger that only you can satisfy. Yet we are such an impatient people. Like the culture around us, we want spiritual fast food, not the nourishing food that comes through perseverance, quiet reflection, service and gratitude. We want immediate blessings rather than undergo the slow transformation of allowing you to reshape our lives. Come to us in our anxiety and fear, that we might come to you with repentant hearts and once again rediscover your grace. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

*KYRIE ELEISON Healey Willan

We have a message of hope for a fearful time. In our era of globalization we offer a vision of a society that shares more and consumes less, seeks compassion over suspicion and equality over domination, and finds security in joined hands rather than massed arms. We honor the dignity of every person and the intrinsic value of every creature, and pray and work for the day when none "labor in vain or bear children for calamity." We commit ourselves to a culture of peace and freedom that embraces non-violence, nurtures character, treasures the environment, and builds community, rooted in a spirituality of inner growth with outward action, trusting in the God who makes all things new.

THE OFFERING

Please sign and pass the Friendship Register found on the pew nearest the center aisle.

Though many of us contribute electronically or by a check in the mail, your holding and passing the offering plate is an act of blessing and dedication to our life together in Jesus Christ.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

- (9:00) Wachet auf, ruft uns die Stimme harm. J. S. Bach
- Magnificat primi toni Johann Pachelbel
- (11:00) Rorate caeli Rorate caeli
arr. David Hurd

Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness.

Be not wroth very sore, O Lord, neither remember iniquity for ever: thy holy cities are a wilderness, Sion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation: our Holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee. (Antiphon)

We have sinned and are as an unclean thing, and we all do fade as a leaf: and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away; thou hast hid thy face from us: and hast consumed us because of our iniquities. (Antiphon)

Ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, and my servant whom I have chosen; that ye may know me and believe me: I, even I, am the Lord, and beside me there is no Saviour: and there is none that can deliver out of my hand. (Antiphon)

Comfort ye my people, my salvation shall not tarry: I have blotted out as a thick cloud thy transgressions: Fear not, for I will save thee: for I am the Lord thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy redeemer. (Antiphon)

Rorate caeli, Isaiah 45:8

THIS MORNING’S OFFERTORY ANTHEM at the 11:00 service is a mystical setting of the Gregorian chant Rorate caeli, sung most commonly in the Catholic Church during Advent. Handbells, playing somewhat angular tonal clusters, introduce the piece. Over this type of accompaniment, the cantor sings the words of Isaiah 45:8 as the antiphon (or refrain), followed by a repetition by the full choir. The verses are then sung in alternation, first by the men and then the women, each being followed by the full choir singing the antiphon. With this structure, the verses, which could be interpreted as a series of prayers expressing penitence, longing, and comfort, are framed by the Isaiah passage.

THE COLOR OF PARAMENTS changes with the Liturgical Seasons. White symbolizes purity, holiness, and virtue, as well as respect and reverence. White is used for all High Holy Days and festival days of the church year, especially the seasons of Christmas and Easter, and the first Sunday of each month for Communion. Over the last several years, more and more liturgical churches have returned to using blue as the color associated with the season of Advent. Blue was used, in fact, until the Middle Ages, when blue dye became too expensive to produce and purple was substituted. Thus, the color purple was used for both advent as well as the season of Lent. This year Westminster joins many churches in returning to the color blue for reasons both historical and theological. Blue was the color associated with the Virgin Mary, and the season of Advent finds us waiting with her for the birth of God incarnate in the baby Jesus. Further, while Lenten purple marks a time of penitence and a focus on the suffering of our Lord, the color blue reminded early Christians that Advent was a season focused on hope, expectation and the anticipation of those awaiting the birth of the Savior.
